AUSTRO-SERIAN ROW BECOMES ACUTE AND GRIM WAR IS FACED

BULLETIN

Vienna, July 27—Austria continued today to force acquiescence to every demand in the ultimatum made last week. Emperor Franz Joseph is making an effort to break up the Pan-Serbian associations and obtain assurances that all army officers in the plot to assassinate Arch Duke Ferdinand shall be punished.

BULLETIN

Washington, July 27—The Russian minister of war at St. Petersburg has issued a statement, it was learned in official circles here today, that the Russian ministry considers that war between Austria and Russia is inevitable and that orders for the complete mobilization of the Russian army have been issued. The official communication further states that the ministry considers that the state of affairs existing between Austria and Serbia "is a situation to which we (Russia) could not remain indifferent."

BULLETIN

Athens, Greece, July 27—Greece has pledged her aid to Serbia if Austria forces war. A high official of the government declared today that upon notice of an invasion of Serb territory 100,000 Greek troops would be sent to the aid of her ally in the Balkans.

Vienna, Austria, July 27—Men made it was understood in diplomatic circles that he had instructed the representatives of England to appeal to the German, French and Italian governments to unite in preventing the conflict. This plan provides for joint action in invoking a conference in London to mediate the differences between the dual monarchy and its little neighbor.

Pessimism prevailed here today following the assassination of Arch Duke Ferdinand and his uncle. The communication also gave the reason for Austria's decision to Serbia's reply:

The object of the Serbian ministry is to create the false impression that the Serbian government is preparing in great measure to carry out its demands. As a matter of fact, however, Serbia's chief interest lies with the dishonesty of the Austro-Hungarian government.

All the great powers of Europe and the smaller nations as well are preparing for war. 120,000 men are under orders to mobilize or are expecting such order within 24 hours. All ports are being held at their stations.

Austria has taken the first step towards war by giving the Serbian minister his passport and massing her troops on the Serbian frontier. Serbia has replied by ordering the mobilization of her army and withdrawing her government from Belgrade to Nish.

London, England, July 27—European states that Serbian troops aboard a Danube river steamer fired on Austro-Hungarian troops this afternoon, that the fire was returned and an engagement of some importance ensued. This was regarded as another version of a dispatch received from Semlin last night stating that Serbian troops had fired on soldiers of the dual monarchy while the latter were being carried along the Danube to mobilization points.

Another Rauter dispatch stated that the Hungarian bourse of Budapest has been closed. The news came from the government of Hungary. One of his messages was

EUROPE'S MENACING WAR SITUATION IN BRIEF

Austria refuses to parley further with Serbia.

Serbia is prepared to resist invasion and looks to Russia for aid.

Russia mobilizes her troops and serves unofficial notice on Austria that she must not invade Serbia.

Italy apparently wants to be friendly to both nations but in the event of war will aid Serbia.

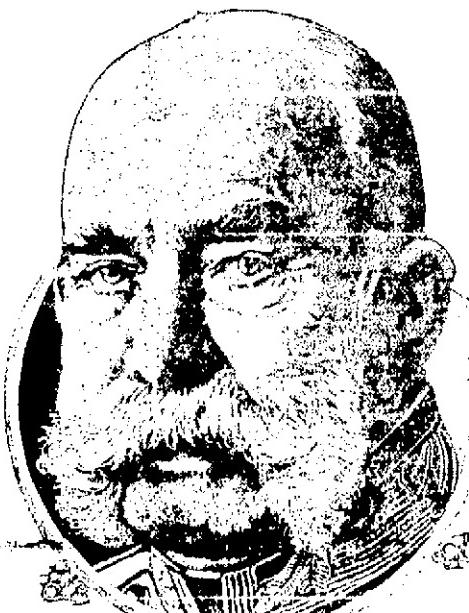

Germany seeks to localize the situation but in the case of war will probably aid Austria.

France holds her army and navy in readiness in event of war.

The vatican pleads with Franz Josef not to stain the last years of his reign with bloodshed.

The situation summed up in general is more hopeful than it was Saturday.

HIS GOVERNMENT ON VERGE OF WAR BECAUSE OF NEPHEW'S MURDER

EMPEROR FRANZ JOSEPH OF AUSTRIA

Berlin, July 27—The aged emperor, Franz Joseph, is believed to be behind Austria's precipitous demands upon Serbia for the punishment of all accomplices in the murder of the Archduke Francis Ferdinand and the suppression of all the societies which have fomented rebellion in Bosnia. It is understood here that Belgrade will refuse to comply with the latter demand, not only because of the very nature of the demand, but because of the sharpness of tone. Seven military corps, under Baron Hoechendorf, have been garrisoned along the Serbian border for immediate action should Serbia refuse to comply. Should war be the outcome, Germany, the ally of Austria, and Russia are expected to be involved.

Denver, Colo., July 27—The special committee appointed to consider the amalgamation of the Western Federation of Miners with the United Mine Workers of America made a report to the annual convention of the western federation today, rejecting the project.

Cleveland, Ohio, July 27—Attorney General Hogan today recurred his opinion to which he held that salaries of county superintendents of schools under the law school act were limited to $2600. Rural boards had fixed salaries in excess of $2000 before Hogan's opinion could reach them. Hogan said, however, that the state could pay only $100 to each county superintendent but there was no limit to what each county could pay.

Boston, Mass., July 27—The Boston district court, shot and killed his five weeks old daughter, seriously wounded his wife, and 5-year-old son as they slept and then killed himself early today. He had suffered from nervous breakdown.

The crowds finding that the soldiers had returned to the barracks, attacked the royal barracks. Finally the mob kicked down the gate of the barracks and fired a couple of shots. Then bugles were sounded and the police came on the scene and dispersed the crowd.

Augustine Birrell, secretary for Ireland, announced in the House of Commons that the Assistant of Police of Dublin had been suspended pending further investigation.

The gates were guarded by the police.

BODY OF L. E. MARTING FOUND IN THE OHIO RIVER

THEORY OF SUICIDE IS ADVANCED BY BROTHER, WAS PRESIDENT OF THE SCIOTOVILLE MILLING CO.

The veil of mystery that surrounded the disappearance of Louis E. Marting, prominent citizen of Ironton and president of the Scioto Milling Company was lifted Sunday morning at 11 o'clock when his dead body was found in the Ohio river near Coal Grove.

A hundred yards away stood Mr. Marting's abandoned automobile, much credence in a murder theory where he left it Friday morning. It "Of course I cannot believe that he supposed he had driven the car." Louis E. Marting deliberately came after leaving his home in Ironton, and the fact that the car for that. It is my candid opinion belonged to Mr. Marting was the fact he mind was unbalanced at the first place of direct evidence that he left when he left his home in Ironton was missing. The car was found last Friday morning. Just how Mr. Marting's body got into the Ohio river features of the end affair.

Just how Mr. Marting met his death may never be known. Many theories have been advanced, but as there were no witnesses to the affair, many of them lack plausibility. One theory that is charged by relatives of the dead man is that he took his own life while mentally unbalanced. Another is that he met with foul play. The fact that there were but two light houses on his body could not be accounted for.

Although a resident of Ironton, Mr. Marting spent a great portion of his business hours in Sciotoville. As president of the Sciotoville Milling company, he remained actively connected with the plant. Practically every day witnessed his presence in Sciotoville and at the plant where he directed his destinies. Much of its success is attributed to his personal endeavor, enthusiasm and optimism. His trips to the village from the county seat in Lawrence county were made in an automobile when the weather was favorable. Under other circumstances he made his trip on a train. Only when the firm's business called him to another city was he absent from the plant. He had a legion of friends in Scioto county. His winning personality when the weather was favorable won and retained many friendships. His business interests in daily trip from his home at Sixth and Walnut streets, Ironton to the plant in Sciotoville. He made it even when the weather was not favorable to automobile driving.

According to Mrs. Fred Ross, president of Gray Gables, located near Hanging Rock, Mr. Marting's friends all over the eastern part of the country were near their homes on Sunday evening. Attorney T. D. Shirley says he saw Mr. Marting in his office at Coal Grove as late as Friday afternoon. He says he was stooping over as if he was trying to open the tool box of the machine. E. T. Gould, of Sheriden, Lawrence county, says he passed the car at 5 o'clock Friday afternoon and nobody was in it. He stopped and examined the machine. There was an old coat lying on the front seat of the car.

I am sorry to report that the Scioto Milling Company was heavily involved financially and was denied by C. E. Marting. "We have had some financial difficulties, but we are straightening them out very satisfactorily. They are small affairs that crop up now and again, but it is certain that it was not over business reverses that caused our brother to probably leave the city."

According to C. L. Marting, a tent was moored just above the spot where his brother sank to his death. It is thought that he possibly leaped from one of these barges into the river.

When it became a certainty that he had disappeared, C. L. Marting went to Hanging Rock and formed a searching party there, as he was of the opinion that his brother's body, if found at all, would be located near there.

Besides the widow, Mr. Marting is survived by two brothers and three sisters: William Marting, of Ironton; C. L. Marting, of Sciotoville; Mrs. Mary Krick, of Amelia, O.; Mrs. Caroline Drydenbeck, of Delaware, and Mrs. Elizabeth Wriston, of Huntington, W. Va. He was 48 years old.

MANGLED BODY OF A MAN FOUND ALONG TRACKS OF N. & W. NEAR RUSHTOWN

Sunday morning revealed a gruesome sight on the roadbed of the Cincinnati division of the N. & W. near Rushtown. What was once the live body of human, lay in a dismembered heap where it supposedly had been tossed by an N. & W. freight.

A leg was off, the head was crushed almost to a pulp and the body otherwise horribly mutilated.

Every effort to identify the victim has been futile. Not a scrap of paper or a mark that would furnish a clue to his identity was available. The cap he wore contained a Montgomery, Ala., trade mark. Officials, however, express the opinion that the body is that of a Scioto county man and that he met his death either while riding a freight train or walking along the tracks Saturday night. The body when picked up was entirely in a blue shirt and a pair of serge trousers. The victim also wore a Scotch plaid or tweed suit.

He had dark hair and blue eyes and appeared to be a man about 22 or 23 years old, weighed about 130 pounds and was 5 feet 5 inches in height.

After the remains had been viewed by Coroner O. W. Robins they were taken to the John Dicks mortuary on Fourth street, this city where the body awaits identification.

The body when picked up was entirely in a blue shirt and a pair of serge trousers. The victim also wore a Scotch plaid or tweed suit.

Written by Miss Williams during her work in "The Adventures" and was produced under her personal direction, and many critics pronounced it a better wild animal picture than either number of the now famous series of her "Adventures."

At The Exhibit

The Mutual Girl is to be the headliner on the program at the Exhibit tonight.

The story keeps interesting and the heroine is still unfound, though Sir Conan Doyle has been asked for advice on the best way of seeking her. Burns, the great detective, seems also to have given advice on this point. Among others of the great personages of New York, Miss Benn, Miss Reed and Miss Yorska are introduced. It is making an excellent and popular offering.

In addition to this excellent program there is a split reel of comedy, "Such a Bad Business," one of the humorous stories, and "A Busy Man" the other.

Tuesday night will see the fifth installment of "The Million Dollar Mystery." It shows life at the bottom of the sea and is one of the greatest among the many in the moving picture line.

Scene Tonight

The big feature at the Seaside tonight is a big 101 Basin two-reel feature, "Adrift in the South Seas," a thrilling story of the days when the silicon belted pirates held sway in the South Seas, when the discovery of new lands was a daily occurrence and when every breeze brought adventure more strange than perils of pirates. It was staged among the South Sea Islands by Director Henry MacLean and his "around the world" company of Universal Players. A very thrilling picture, one you can't afford to miss.

Tomorrow's special feature is "A Mother of Men," a thrilling Civil War story in three big reels. Watch this space every day for the Seaside features, something doing every day.

THEATRICAL

"Paid In Full"

The Repan-Yewis players at Millbrook Park Casino are ever on the lookout for the best, the plays they think will prove most popular and pleasing to Portsmouth theatergoers, and they spare no expense to get this kind. "Paid in Full," which opens tonight, is by Eugene Walters, author of "The Wolf," etc. And most critics consider "Paid in Full" his best work, and the company has to pay a tidy little sum of money just for the privilege of producing this truly wonderful play. The direction has been under Mr. Curtis, who played Capt. Williams with one of the road shows, and everything is being done to make this the best and largest thing attempted in Portsmouth by a popular priced stock company.

We expect to see a record crowd on hand tonight for it is well worth your while to see this excellent bill. Seats are on sale during the day at Wurster's drug store. The usual matinees will be played on Wednesdays and Saturdays.

Thank God for Work.

Residents of the East End will be treated to the third installment of "The Million Dollar Mystery," to be shown at the Temple tonight. Manager Sniffle, after much hard work succeeded in hooking this stellar attraction. The first two parts of the story made a decided hit.

Ed K. Walsh Funeral

According to word received by legal relatives, the remains of the late Ed K. Walsh, who died from the effects of an accident near Soldier, Idaho, will arrive here some time Tuesday and the funeral has been set for Wednesday morning at 10:30 o'clock from Holy Redeemer church. The remains are being accompanied here by Mrs. Walsh, and by Mr. Walsh's brother and sister-in-law, Mr. and Mrs. J. R. Walsh, who went to Chicago to meet them.

Further details of the sad accident show that Mr. Walsh had taken advantage of a trip being made by a friend after a wagon load of telegraph poles, to go with him to enjoy fishing and hunting. On the return trip the wagon started to get away from them while coming down a hill, and Mr. Walsh in grabbing for the brake rope, lost his balance, and fell to the ground. One arm was broken in two places, and he also suffered an injury to his spine and the base of his skull. He was partially paralyzed, but was conscious almost to the time of his death.

The following brothers and sisters survive: George, Ed, John and Baylor Ashworth, and Mrs. Martha Tines, of Middleborough, Ky., and Mrs. Emma Rankin of Scioto Furnace. Mrs. Urban was a most estimable woman, a loving mother and a favorite sister of a large family. She was a faithful member of the First Avenue Christian church.

She was never alone under the knife in the hope that an operation would save her life, but Miss Hood was a good soul, too, that she deserved the best possible care.

YOUR EYES ARE YOUR BREAD WINNERS

Take care of them. If you would stop and think what it would mean to be deprived of your eye-sight how utterly helpless you would be, you wouldn't abuse your eyes in the least but would take the greatest care of them always.

The moment you feel that anything is wrong, if your sight is dimmed, if you feel dizzy, if your eyes tire easily, you should not lose a minute in having them examined. By being prompt in attending to your eyes at the first sign of trouble you will be able to have the defect speedily and permanently cured.

We make no charge for examination and recommend glasses only when necessary.

Picking Up Money

Using those coins is pretty much like picking up money on the streets. Walking is small effort, you wear out a little leather, the money you pick up is clear gain, if you can't find the owner.

So it is little effort to telephone your "want" to this paper, your carrier will collect the little cost—only 25 cents a word each insertion—and the little ad is altogether likely to get for you what you want.

Miss Dolly Wise

She is here to answer any and all questions concerning love, matrimony, troubles, woes, etiquette, etc. Inquiries should be addressed to Miss Dolly Wise, care The Daily Times, Portsmouth, Ohio.

Miss Dolly Wise.—Is Weller and Francisco in the Portsmouth base ball team married or single? TWO FANNETTES.

They are both single, so get busy.

Dear Miss Wise.—I have been reading your letters and you have helped so many girls. I like to come to you for help. I like to tell the young boys and girls and my parents don't like for me to. I am in love with a young boy of 19 and I think that he loves me and he comes every Sunday to see me. I haven't any day to see him. Do you think my brothers for him to talk to. Do you think my parents know he is coming to see me? I am 17. My parents say he is not nice, but he is nice before me. Do you think he will go back on me? He tells me he loves me dearly and he will take me to Tennessee when I am of age. Do you think he will keep his promise, Dolly?

WANT TO KNOW?

If your parents haven't met your steady, it's about time you were making them acquainted. Where do they go every Sunday? When he comes to see you? You are too young to be thinking of getting married. When you get old enough you probably will see some one else you like better than this boy.

Dear Miss Wise.—Does red hair cause a high temper? RED.

No. Not any more than any other color of hair.

Dear Miss Wise.—I would like to know what you think about a girl's mother that tells her she can walk with the boys, but don't like to hear her talk about any boy? She is also opposed to me having anything to do with boys from Kentucky. I think the Kentucky boys are just as good as any other boys, don't you? DOLLY?

ANXIOUS TO KNOW?

Your mother is all right. Of course she doesn't want you to be always talking about the boys, when there are so many other things to talk about. You ought to be satisfied if she lets you with them once in awhile. The Kentucky boys are all right, but what's the matter with the Portusky boys?

South Webster.—Dear Miss Wise—I am a young girl of 18. I have been going with a fellow 23. I love him very deeply and I think he loves me but he is in the habit of drinking. He won't drink when I am with him, but he says he would quit if he was married. Do you think he would? I have black hair and brown eyes, fair complexion. I am a hard working girl and I love to work. Do you think I am old enough to marry? Is my writing

A Few Bad Planks Lay Up The Bonne

The ferryboat Bonne, recently purchased from the county commissioners by James P. Brennan failed to pass the inspection made on it by Inspectors Damon and Payton of Cincinnati, and until changes are made that have been ordered by them, the Bonne will have to temporarily abandon its trips between New Boston and Fullerton.

The inspectors ordered several planks removed from the hull of the famous battleship Bonne and the boat will have to go on the docks to have this done. Mr. Brennan learned Monday that the Cincinnati docks are full up. He got in communication with owners of the Pleasant docks and he ran into a similar situation, and no place will be available for two or three weeks. The Bonne since being banned by the government officials is now tows about lazily on the bosom of the Ohio river near the Capelhart coal floats, at the foot of Jefferson street. It will probably be three weeks before she will again be ready for service. Mr. Brennan was greatly disappointed at the report of the inspectors. He claims that when he bought the boat he was told that it had been officially inspected and was in good shape. Mr. Brennan paid $1,000 for the Bonne.

C. & O. Train Runs On N. & W. Tracks

Because of a freight derailment that tied up traffic on the N. & W.'s division for three hours passenger train No. 5 thundered along at a rapid clip as the train covered the distance from Kenova to Portsmouth in 49 minutes. The train arrived in Cincinnati right on the dot. Six cars were piled up in the derailment, but no one was hurt.

Enjoyed Air Machine.

John Simonton, a well known N. & W. engineer, who resides in Sciotoville, returned Sunday from a visit to Cleveland and Columbus. While in Cleveland Mr. Simonton saw a hydro-aeroplane make several successful flights. He says the machine worked perfectly and that it glided through the air with the same facility and ease of a bird.

LOCALS MADE IT 3 OUT OF FOUR FROM "SENATORS"

DILTZ PITCHED TEAM TO GLORIOUS VICTORY, LEXINGTON COLTS HERE

(By F. W. Sheridan)

Under lowering clouds climaxed now and then by the commanding of nature's heavy artillery in the north-west, those Climbing Champs of ours made it three out of four from the Charleston Senators at Millbrook Park, Sunday afternoon, much to the enjoyment of a nice crowd of friends and well-wishers who had risked a ducking to see their favorites in action against Biddy Boys' hopefuls. The score was 6 to 3 and as a result of the pastime the locals are right on the heels of the other teams that go to town this compact and very much alive organization. To Stewart Diltz, the Bosseville baseball, goes the honor of capturing the Sunday game. Mr. Diltz, who is one of the most willing and zealous workers in the league, did the pitching for the home boys and thanks to his cunning the scalp of the visitors was left high and dry on the Millbrook beach. Diltz allowed ten hits, it is true, but he was supreme until the locals had amassed quite a lead for him and then eased up a bit, not caring to disclose all his stuff in one afternoon. He pitched a careful calculating game, fanning five men and walking but one and deserved the fruits of victory.

He was opposed by Alfred Leak, the exuberant Skeeter, who is regarded as one of the wild horses of the O. S. L. Leak was as wild as a March hare and before he could settle down or coax the right kind of support from his comrades the locals had shaved home three huge and elegant runs. This all happened in the first inning and while Leak walked two men, he did not allow anything that looked like a hit. Just one of his unsuccessays, that is all.

The locals displayed a couple of new players yesterday. Messes Emery and Curtis of Maysville were well repaid for the locals took the hit in their teeth and clinched the contest before it was ten minutes old.

Manager Boers would have given a month's salary to have served Sunday's game which time that they had shown forth in a local uniform. They both performed right up to the handle, in fact Emery's fielding was the feature of the game. He took care of ten of his eleven chances and covered a wide range of ground, spoiling more than one hit because of his agility and unerring marksmanship. He also secured a home run drive, a mighty blow to middle that carried almost to the flag pole. He sent forth a long sacrifice fly and drove a terrific liner into the waiting hands of Mr. Calvert in left. On his other trip to the bat he secured a walk. His entire introduction to the game was all that could be wished for and he has won for himself a happy home. Mr. Curtis took care of everything that came his way, and cracked out a single that counted in the run-making. He was as chirp as a cricket and demonstrated that he, too, is a ball player who can be branded with the O. K. mark. Mr. Curtis played third while the hand and ever willing Goostree performed at the initial sack.

Despite the heavy clouds that swept over the city as early as 2 o'clock, the fan talent was well represented and the enthusiasm was at high tide from start to finish. Had the day been more propitious, the attendance would have doubled itself and then some. Those who took the chance were well repaid for the locals took the hit in their teeth and clinched the contest before it was ten minutes old.

White Slavery Charge May Follow An Ariesi

A charge of white slavery will likely be lodged against Carl Tello, a young foreigner, whom the police claim, attempted to induce Emma Sickles, a married woman of Kentucky to accompany him to Columbus last Saturday afternoon. Tello had the tickets purchased, the police say, and but for the interference of the police, would have succeeded in carrying out his purpose. Officer Albrecht arrested them shortly before the arrival of the train.

Mayor Frick conducted a short investigation of the case Monday morning, but will hold the matter open until the woman's husband, J. W. Correll, Monday morning, and were none given cash. Tello's man was later released, as he furnished the names of the other guilty youths to the police, but Cooper was put to work on the streets Monday afternoon. The evidence showed that they had been recruited for the past weeks, the police are looking for Clyde Doty, Tonto Miller and Karl Orlin, who are alleged to have been parties to the theft.

A large number of drunks and disorderlies appeared for trial before the mayor Monday morning, while a few forfeited bonds by their non-appearance. Robert Cook, of Front street, charged with assault by Ed Copas, a farmhand and Rolly Sheets, each charged with drunkenness and disorderly conduct, were each fined $10, while Sarah George, Ed Sonnett, John Daniels, and William Crumgates drew $5 each. Dave Bowman forfeited a $10 bond. Those who are unable to pay up Frank Johnson and Henry Wal face forfeited bonds of $5 each will be put to work on the streets, and was still in bad shape when he appeared at the hearing Monday morning. He was represented by Attorney William Sprague.

Cook claims that Copas made an insulting remark to his wife, which brought on the trouble. This Copas brands as untrue.

On complaint of Liverman Al Windle, Joseph Stamper was arrested Saturday evening on a charge of disorderly conduct and destruction of property. Windle claims that Stamper, while intoxicated, drove a horse which he had hired from him so recklessly as to badly damage the buggy. Stamper pleaded not guilty Monday morning, but was convicted and fined $10 and costs.

GIVE FINE CONCERT

Threatening weather kept the attendance down at the sand concert of the River City band in Millbrook park Sunday evening. A splendid program was put on and the audience was so interested that the band responded to numerous cheers.

BOYS AFTER MELONS

Upon complaint of J. M. Stockman, three local youths, Donald Cullip, Bruce Thompson and Nelson Snow, have been ordered to appear before Juvenile Judge Beatty on charges of disorderly conduct. Mr. Stockman claims that he has been continuously annoyed by the three youths, who break into cars loaded with watermelons, throw sand in the machinery in his plant at Elverta and Chillicothe streets, and throw rocks at the watchdogs of the plant. Judge Beatty will give the youths a chance to reform, but if further complaints are received, they will be dealt with accordingly.

The mayor has continued the hearing in the case of Thomas Cook, of Front street, charged by their non-appearance. Robert

Cook, of Front street, charged with assault by Ed Copas, a farmhand and Rolly Sheets, each charged with drunkenness and disorderly conduct, were each fined $10, while Sarah George, Ed Sonnett, John Daniels, and William Crumgates drew $5 each.
